Seventh Sunday of Easter

16th May 2021

Collect

O God the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: we beseech you, leave us not comfortless, but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Acts 1.15-17,21-26

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred and twenty people). He said, 'Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus – for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry. So one of the men who have accompanied us throughout the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us – one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.' So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, 'Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.' And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Gospel: John 17.6-19

Jesus looked up to heaven and prayed: 'Father, I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.'

Post Communion

Eternal God, giver of love and power, your Son Jesus Christ has sent us into all the world to preach the gospel of his kingdom: confirm us in this mission, and help us to live the good news we proclaim; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

REFLECTIONS - JOHN RISBY

There is so much for us on which to reflect as we read today's Gospel reading, part of our Lord's prayer for himself and for his followers. I was struck by a recurring phrase that Jesus used to describe his twelve disciples, he speaks of them as 'the people you gave me out of the world...', and later he says that this prayer is not for the world but for 'those who you have given me.'

And again thinking of the times when he would no longer be with them, he prayed 'Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me.'

This theme of giving runs through the whole prayer, beginning with the gift of eternal life which is mentioned in an earlier verse 3 [just before our reading], the gift to the disciples of 'the words that you gave me' and they have received, and the joy he was to impart when he had left them.

It is amazing to think that in his wisdom God chose to entrust this 'Gospel' to this small mixed group of people. The fact is that God called them, and in a real sense, gave them to his Son to be instrumental in the mission to the world. They had responded and Jesus shared with them a three year preparation time followed by the vitally important gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit for each of them.

What a wonderful prayer this is, for Jesus prayed not only for the twelve, but 'also for those who will believe in him through their word.'

What encouragement for each of us to know that Jesus 'ever lives to make intercession for us.' [Hebrews 7.25]. It is the privilege of the believer to know that God has given them to the Lord Jesus, to hear and receive his word, to share in his joy and the calling to be his witnesses in the world today. This remains our great challenge -for as someone said, the world isn't waiting to hear about Christian doctrine, he wants to see in the lives of Christ's followers whether it makes any difference!

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEK

Remember O Lord what you have wrought in us and not what we deserve, and, as you have called us to your service, make us worthy of our calling, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
